He was knocked to the ground and was unconscious for a few minutes, but as soon as his senses returned he began to hunt for a wrench with which to repair the elevator.

The Wonderland Moving Picture company at the Pavilion opened the eleventh week with a large audience. The three electric fans helped to keep the Pavilion cool. The programme was the best that was ever seen here. "Traced by a Lion," "The New Head Man" kept the audience in laughter. "Tragic Moment" was good. "Child's Hate" brought great applause, as it so well deserved. "Arctic Hunting" should have special mention to be able to see as in real life. "The Frozen North" with the sea lion, the musk ox and the polar bear. Miss Mary Plagg, four years of age, daughter of the manager, sang in the chorus of the song, "The Good Old U. S. A." and deserves great praise.
